

SONGTEXT

Künstler: i am poet.

Titel: the protagonist

lets go
i´m in the spotlight
nothing is real
and no one is here
this is the begin
circled by skin

i´m on the stage
everything´s okay
as long as i stay
everything´s real
everyone´s here

my time has come
the white light goes on my time has early come
and so on..

we used to live
we used to die
but i need another try to live in peace and fade away cause i never breathed, i never saw i never opened up my heart i never felt what life is like
